Summary

Hey everyone! I am Deep Saha. I am a Computer science student of Netaji Mahavidyalaya. I have a huge interest in Computer science & technology when I was 15. I always wanted to know more about this field. Here I am to explore new things and know more about this field. I have a huge interest in coding. By knowing more about this field, I want to become a software developer in the future. Still learning, still exploring. Looking forward to learn more. Thank you.##
